Hello you all,

Just a little word to thank all of you for your dedication and good humour. As I said it at the cast party it has been more than a pleasure to work with you all. At least this time I can say it and cry at the same time (nobody sees it :-). Thanks to Steve for the trust he has put in me (on me, at me? doesn't matter, he did put it somewhere.) And just like Steve, I hope that we all gonna get the occasion to work together again. I am soooooooooooooo pleased about the success of this production as that is the best thing to pay you back for your hard work and continous efforts. You have been wonderful, both; on and off stage !

Thanks for having turned this winter into a warm and sunny one!
