Pirate Productions Asbl

presents

Wine and Comedy

at

The Church Hall, Gasperich

on

26th, 27th, 28th May 2005
starting at 7.30 pm

Ticket price of 20 Euros includes tasting glasses of 7 different Italian wines and a full glass of the wine of your choice.

Tickets available on 356339 between 9am and 6pm, Monday to Friday or by email on wineandcomedy@sarumlux.net

Book early - numbers are limited.

Act I

A Kettle of Vultures - "We're Your Friends"
Alan - "Albert And The Lion"
Geoff and Val - "The Dancers - An Everyday Tale Of LuxEnders"
The BBC - "A Thoroughly Good Morning's Cricket"
Cantique - "The Goslings"
Fran - "Memories"
The Accidentals - "I Got It From Agnes"
The Accidentals - "Vatican Rag"
Henry - "Grandpa Conducts The Gramophone"
Some Chaps - "The History Of Comedy"

Act II

The Accidentals - "Stick Your Head"
Malcolm - "ACCDM: Chairman's Opening Address"
Cantique - "The Mermaid"
Fran and Adrian - "Spoonerism"
The Bishop - "Sister Josephine"
Ciara and Amanda - "The Enemy Of Beauty"
Alex, Malcolm and Julian - "A Helping Hand"
Val and Randy - "There's A Hole In My Bucket"
Laurel and Hardy - "The Lonesome Pine"
The Dance Troupe - "King Of Broadway"
Bows and Finale - "Comedy Tonight"

Vultures
Steve Preston
Stuart Alexander
Philip Dutton
Neil Johnson
as Mowgli
Alex Teligadis
Brian Parker

Master of Ceremonies. Geoff Stevens

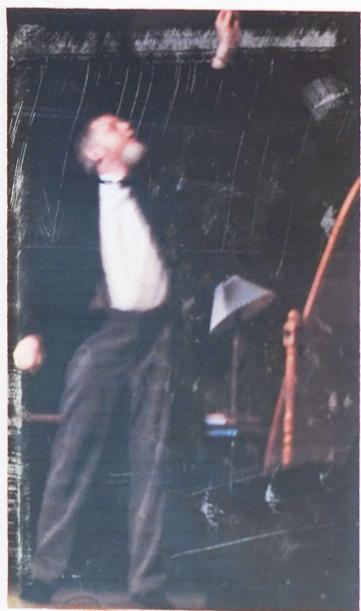

Brian, Steve & Philip watching Cricket

Alan Carlisle tells us about Albert

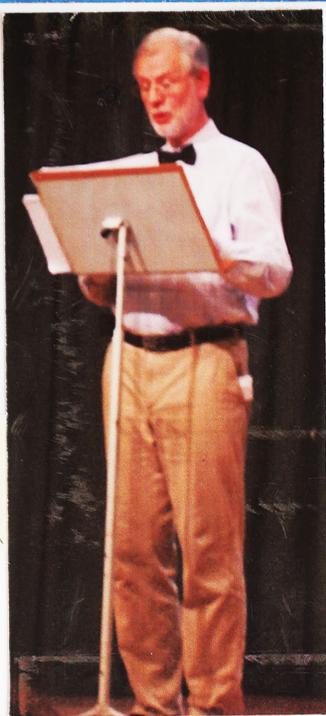

Alan & Pam Carlisle
Jane & Henry Wickens
sing & Goslings

Dominique Vitali, Cara Baker, Amanda Hyatt tell us what they got from Agnes.

Henry Wickens is Grandpa

Brian, Alex & Malcolm demonstrate the History of Comedy as expounded by Steve Preston aided by Julian Nest
Malcolm as the Chairman

Steve as Sister Josephine

Randolph Melton and Valerie Scott discuss the hole in the bucket.

Steve and Neil as Laurel and Hardy.