

Travel to Anatevka - via Esch - to see a Fiddler On The Roof

"A fiddler on the roof. Sounds crazy, no?" So begins Tevye, the village milkman, as he introduces us to the people of his village of Anatevka in Fiddler On The Roof.

The story follows the changing fortunes of Tevye, his family and the Jewish community in this little village in rural Russia, as they attempt to cope with changing customs and attitudes and with the growing wave of anti-Semitism which is sweeping across the country. We follow the tempestuous marriages of his three eldest daughters - one to a tailor, one to a radical reformist and one to a non-Jewish Russian, each marriage further eroding the values and principles which Tevye holds dear.

Finally, even Anatevka cannot survive the pogrom, and all the Jews are forced to leave the village, families splitting up to go their separate ways, perhaps never to meet again.

Fiddler On the Roof, the famous show based on the Sholem Aleichem stories contains music written by Jerry Bock and lyrics by Sheldon Harnick. It will be performed by Pirate Productions at the Esch theatre from 30 September to 3 October inclusively.

The show's director is Carrie O'Brien, the musical director is Alan Carlisle, and the choreographer is Yaga Antony. John O'Sullivan has the lead role as Teyve and Danielle West plays his wife Golde.

Tickets, at 450LUF for adults and 300LUF for students, are still available for certain performances, and can be reserved on tel. 54 03 87 or 54 09 16.

Malcolm Turner
Break a leg
I' Claim!
Carrie

Rachel Turner Break a leg
I' claim!
Carrie

Liz, Male, Geoff, Steve

To Liz,
 You have sat
 w/ us, played w/us, waited for us, you have nursed us through each & every note
 Thank you so very much for your kindness, patience and grace
 Carrie

Nº20

"Fiddler On The Roof"

Cast Party

Adults 450 Flux
 Students 350 Flux

From 23.00 Onwards

Tuesday 3rd October

L'chaim!

Ho! Ho! Ho!

To life!

nazdovia!

Liz Turner Oct. '95