

British Chamber banquet

The British Chamber of Commerce for Luxembourg is holding its Annual Banquet on Wednesday 15th November 2000 at the Hotel Inter-Continental. The guest of honour and speaker this year will be the Hon. Judge David Edward. He will speak on "The Internal Market – a View from the Rusty Palace on the Kirchberg".

The Hon. Judge David Edward is a judge at the European Court of Justice and was previously a judge in the European Court of First Instance. A graduate in classics at Oxford and law at Edinburgh, Judge Edward is a Companion of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, and a Fellow of the Royal Society of Edinburgh. He is also an honorary LL.D. of the University of Edinburgh, Aberdeen and Napier Universities, an honorary Bencher of Gray's Inn and an honorary Fellow of University College, Oxford.

Bookings will be on a "first come, first served" basis, and guests wishing to reserve whole tables for 10 persons should do so as early as possible. For more information, contact the Secretariat on 465 466, or e-mail: sophie.kersch@bcc.lu.

Pirates 21st anniversary celebrations

Pirate Productions asbl will be celebrating their twenty-first anniversary on 18th November at the Salle des Fêtes in the Park at Mondorf. Please note the change of venue.

The party will commence at 6.30 p.m. with an apéritif and will continue with a hot and cold buffet dinner. Interwoven with the meal, members of the Club will perform a selection of songs from many of the shows from the past twenty-one years.

Members and non-members are equally welcome. Tickets cost 1700LuF each and a suitable costume or evening attire would be much appreciated!

If you wish to attend this event, which we are sure will be memorable, contact Barbara Thomson (tel. 25 30 37, email Thomson@village.uunet.lu), Angela Milne (tel. 66 01 92, email pmilne@pt.lu) or Annetje Beugelink (tel. 4379 5410, email a.beugelink@eib.org). Tickets can be paid for at the following BIL account no. 2-156/1068 (mark 21st anniversary celebration)
