

The Rout of the Blues

Vocal

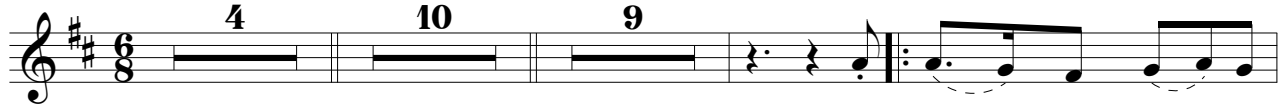

Robin & Barry Dransfield

Philip Dutton

Rousing ♩ = 84

A

B

As I _____ crossed o - ver each _____ one home to her land - lord and land - la - dy

Sal' - sbu - ry plain, Such a dain - ty fine sight I be - hold, _____ The la - sses are cry - ing and mo - ther did run, "Oh my heart is un - done it is true, _____ I'll pack up my clothes _____ with - walk hand in hand, And _____ so do those pret - ty girls too _____ And each _____ one pours out a tear - ing their hair, For - the rout has just come for the Blues. _____ The out more de - lay And _____ bold - ly I'll march with the Blues. _____ And bot - tle of gin, To _____ drink a good health to the Blues _____ To rout has just come for the Blues. _____ Then bold - ly I'll march with the Blues. _____ The drink a good health to the Blues _____ Our ship she is rigged and she's rea - dy to sail, And _____ swee - tly the French horns play gal - lant young fel - lows as e - ver you'll see, Though you search bon - ny Bri - tain all - I _____ crossed o - ver Sal' - sbu - ry plain, Such a dain - ty fine sight I be - too _____ And each _____ one sets up a loud _____ huz - zah "Sue - through _____ When dressed in His Ma - je - sty's suit you'll a - gree There's hold, _____ The las - ses are cry - ing and tea - ring their hair, For the cess to King George and his Blues. _____ "Suc - cess to King George and his none to com - pare with the Blues. _____ There's none to com - pare with the rout has just come for the Blues. _____ The rout has just come for the Blues. _____ They're as Blues. _____ As _____ Blues. _____ Blues. _____